

Alba Mineral Resources Plc (“Alba” or the “Company”)

Trading update

Further to the announcement 30 August 2007 the board of the Company is continuing to seek additional funding. A number of proposals are currently being considered.

As previously announced the Company has downgraded active fieldwork exploration on the existing licences and permits, furthermore to alleviate the current working capital shortfall the directors have deferred payment of their salaries and fees until such time as further funds have been raised by the Company.
